Zoom Expectations

Distance learning expectations mirror in-class, campus expectations.

Ask yourself, "Would I do this on campus?"

Consider your job as a student "working from home."

Participation and attendance

Find a quiet and distraction free space.

Camera must be on during the entire meeting.

No phones or distractions during zoom meetings.

Mute your mic when others are speaking.

Campus dress code applies to all Zoom meetings

Stay Updated and Organized

→ Weekly schedules will be sent out Monday mornings.

These will include:

- Assignments for the week
- Lesson topics for each day
- Meeting times for each zoom class

→ Check <https://kwhent.wixsite.com/mysite>

→ Assignments will be posted on a calendar here for you to see.

→ Google Classroom will be a place for all assignments, projects, and tests including all instructions.

Grading

You will be graded for all assignments, tests, participation, and projects this school year through distance learning.

Attendance, Participation, Agendas:	20%
Assignments (e.g. IXL, workbooks, etc.):	30%
Notebooks:	25%
Assessments (tests, quizzes):	25%

Late Work Policy

Late work will be accepted, but it must be discussed prior to the due date. Any late work that is received after the due date without acceptance by Mrs. Whent will lose 50% immediately.

Late work will only be accepted up to a day late.

For example, a student who is absent for three days, will receive three extra days to complete and turn in the assignment.

Tests and Exams

There will be testing through Google Classroom!
Always come prepared and ready to go for your tests and exams, for there will be NO retakes for the 2020-2021 school year.

Extra Credit

I LOVE extra credit!

It is a great way to get some extra learning in that is not part of the initial curriculum.

There will be a set of extra credit points offered for each unit, however, all work for that unit must be turned in to be qualify to participate in the extra credit.

Extra credit is not there to make up for missed assignments.

Cheating and Plagiarism

Cheating and Plagiarism

There is zero tolerance for cheating and plagiarism. Any students caught plagiarizing or cheating will be sent to the office, made known to other teachers, and also having their parent/guardian notified.

Additionally they will receive a 0 on the assignment and lose all points for that day. This offense takes away the opportunity for a successful citizenship grade as well as making the honor roll. Do not risk your future and experience here at San Benancio for a couple of points.

It is not worth it!

Student Hours

This is your time!

This is time where you can schedule a meeting with me if needed, a check-in, or even if you just want to pop in for a quick hello.
